PERSONAL PROFILE

FP&A Manager with nine years' experience in high-growth fintech and e-commerce businesses. ACCA qualified (2020). I build the planning models and the team around them, and I am comfortable presenting to a board. Notice period: one month. Open to hybrid roles in London or fully remote within the UK.

CAREER HISTORY

Paylane Technologies (payments fintech, ~£60m revenue), London

FP&A Manager, Apr 2022 - present

- Lead a team of three analysts owning the annual budget, quarterly reforecasts and a rolling 18-month forecast for a business growing 40% year on year.
- Implemented Anaplan for headcount and opex planning across 12 cost centres, replacing 60 linked Excel workbooks; planning cycle cut from six weeks to three.
- Built the Power BI board pack (revenue by corridor, take rate, contribution margin, cash runway), refreshed from NetSuite and the data warehouse.
- Write the SQL behind the revenue and unit-economics reporting in Snowflake rather than waiting on the data team.
- Business partner to the CTO and Head of Sales; modelled the pricing change that lifted take rate by 18 bps.

Brightcart Ltd (online homewares retailer), London

Senior FP&A Analyst, Sep 2019 - Mar 2022

- Owned the Adaptive Insights model for a £120m revenue online retailer: weekly trading forecast, marketing ROI and inventory cash-flow scenarios.
- Ran the monthly management accounts commentary and variance analysis with the financial controller.

Brightcart Ltd, London

Management Accountant, Sep 2017 - Aug 2019

- Prepared monthly management accounts, accruals, prepayments and margin analysis by category.
